ReCreate Terms and Conditions of Membership January 2014

ReCreate Ireland is a registered charity operating as a social enterprise. Membership of ReCreate is open to any group or individual who adheres to ReCreate's Terms and Conditions of Membership.

Membership of ReCreate entitles groups and individuals to use the services provided by the charity.

- Anyone or any group using these services must be a current member.
- Only the persons named on the membership form can use the centre.

VISITING RECREATE

- Upon arrival at ReCreate, membership numbers must be handed into the reception.
- For Health and Safety reasons, all children must be accompanied by an adult.
- Some of our materials may be a hazard to children, and will be taken at the discretion of the member.

FAIR USAGE POLICY

- Any materials supplied by ReCreate must be used solely for the activities of the member group named on the membership. The materials must not be resold, exchanged or used for any other purpose.
- Materials must not be used for commercial or private use. Any member found selling our free materials will have their membership withdrawn.
- Art and Education Resource Store Ireland Limited trading as Recreate, its directors, servants, agents, suppliers, members and benefactors make no warranty as to the condition of the product supplied to members as to its fitness or suitability for any purpose. All express or implied conditions as to the condition, fitness or suitability of the product are excluded. Members accept any such product on the strict understanding that Art and Education Resource Store Ireland Limited trading as Recreate, its directors, servants, agents, suppliers, members and benefactors have no liability whatsoever for any loss, damage, personal injury, property damage, inconvenience or expense incurred by the member arising from the supply of any product to the member.
- ReCreate reserves the right to place limits on quantities of materials collected.
- ReCreate requests that members only take reasonable amounts of materials, Members are encouraged to not take more than is needed for their service.
- ReCreate reserves the right to change the terms of the Fair Usage Policy as seen fit.

MEMBERSHIP ADMINISTRATION

- Renewal of Membership will be backdated to the date of expiry, and will last one year from that date, regardless of the date on which the renewal fee was received.

PAYMENTS

- Visa and MasterCard are accepted at ReCreate with a €10 minimum amount for card transactions.
- Personal cheques will be accepted only when covered by a valid banker's card.

ReCreate has the right to refuse or rescind membership to any group whom they feel contravenes the ReCreate Terms and Conditions of Membership. A member has the right to appeal to the Management Board against such a decision. ReCreate reserves the right to alter or otherwise add to these conditions by giving written notice.

AIMS

ReCreate aims to promote creative play and encourage environmental responsibility, by collecting non-toxic, reusable surplus materials from industry and providing them, together with other low cost materials, to groups working with children, young people and community groups throughout the Republic of Ireland.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY POLICY

- ReCreate is committed to the practice and promotion of equal opportunities in its role as an employer and as a provider of goods and services.
- ReCreate is opposed to discrimination against people on the grounds of sex, race, nationality, age, class, religion, marital status, disability, sexuality, culture, family background, colour, political opinion and having a criminal record.
- ReCreate urges its own member groups to develop their own clear policies of inclusive play provision, encouraging initiatives that will enhance the quality of opportunity for children and young people in the Republic of Ireland.
- In pursuit of these aims, ReCreate will examine and regularly review policy and criteria and adapt them in accordance with changing needs.
